Sewerage Disposal Study Authorized By City Fathers

Consulting engineers from the firm of Russell and Axon presented their findings on proposed sewerage and garbage disposal facilities at the Wednesday meeting of the city council.

Yes L. Russell described the Belle Glade project as "perhaps the hardest in the state" because of certain situations present here, Russell told the council that a combined plan for sewerage, trash and garbage should be studied and prepared. The council agreed to authorize Russell and Axon to make a survey of water supply and distribution, sewerage treatment and sewage as well as trash and garbage disposal.

The plan to be called a "City Plan for Utilities," would combine a 1947 plan with revisions as to design and market prices at the present with consideration for the city's needs during the next 15-year period.

The immediate cost of the survey will run slightly more than $4,000, and will be ready in the next four months. This preliminary report will also contain a financing plan for operation. The council asked Russell if consideration for gas lines should be made at this time. He assured the council that no license for gas lines had been issued by the Florida Power Commission even though certain plans were circulating throughout the state.

In other action the council moved to reconsider a resolution passed and sent to the Palm Beach legislative delegation objecting to the bill proposing that each parcel of land in the city of Belle Glade have a minimum drainage tax equal to one acre that is $2.25 per acre. The council originally resolved that one dollar should be sufficient.

Spokesman for the South Florida Conservancy Association told the council that although service would not be increased through the higher rate, the present service could not be maintained at a lower rate.

A letter was read from representative Russell O. Morrow stating that the delegation was doing all possible toward obtaining funds for a local armory. A second letter from Emmett S. Roberts thanked the council for their telegram relative to cities doing their own legislating. Roberts said he strongly favored legislation to this effect in the state chamber.

In minor action the council appointed city manager Charles Goodlett, to study the need for licensing more than the city's present three are 13 operating.

Absolved!

Chief Goodlett has announced that the technician operating a lie detector in Miami gave Leland Hardy and Ben McGee, the two pickets who were on duty the morning of the fire at the local telephone office, a "clean bill of health."

It is reported that neither of the young men were awake, nor knew anything of the cause of the fire, as a result of his tests; he believes implicitly in the showing of the detector.

The two voluntarily took the test.

Rams Beat Eagles Lose To Trojans

The Trojans of Lake Worth played nine hits off three Belle Glade pitchers Tuesday to post a 12-2 win over the visiting Rams and to remain in the running for the Suncoast Conference title.

The first three innings were won by the Rams, but the Trojans scored one run in the second and the Rams coming through with the tying tally in the third. Lake Worth won the game by getting three runs across the plate in the bottom of the fourth, then adding eight more in the sixth. Belle Glade could manage only one additional run, getting this in the seventh.

Trojan pitcher Jim Ogle limited the Rams to six hits, while striking out five and walking five. Paul Diamond paced the winners attack, with three singles which accounted for two RBIs.

Walter Mosley started on the mound for Belle Glade, working five innings, giving up eight hits and allowing four Ken Morris' home runs. Ken Morris' last was a 13-inning, then Bobby Joe Thomas finished the game.

Walter Mosley and Wayne Bair each collected two hits for the Rams. Belle Glade left 12 men stranded on the bases.

Last Friday Belle Glade pitched league leading Fort Pierce 6-4 on the local diamond. The Eagles picked up one win in the first as a result of a dropped third strike, a stolen base and an error.

Belle Glade moved two across the plate in their half of the first frame on a passed ball and two errors. Singles by Buck Jones and Bobby Joe Thomas, a walk and two Eagle errors gave the Rams four more runs in the fourth.

Fort Pierce staged a seventh inning rally which died two runs short of a tie. The Rams

Arsonist Succeeds Party In Destroying Equipment Of Local Phone Exchange

Telephone officials said the fire was caused by a direct act of arson since a five-gallon can of kerosene had been dumped on three ladders and chairs and set ablaze in an aisle between long distance equipment.

Telephone officials said all connections to West Palm Beach were burned out. Early Monday only two cables remained intact with Miami and only three cables to Fort Pierce. Later that morning as repairs were made, the fire was gradually restored. More than half of the local service was gone, but much of it was restored by early Monday. All local service has been intact at least temporarily since 9 p.m. Monday.

As police, telephone officials and the FBI began an extensive investigation, experts from as far away as Jacksonville were called. Belle Glade set-estimated the cost of repairs which runs into thousands of dollars. Final repair bill probably runs in excess of $50,000.

District manager, Ed F. Reddy, offered a $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of the person or persons involved.

Local police officers have not disclosed any findings at this time; however, these facts are known: There was no sign of forced entry to the building. A spokesman at the plant said the door was presumably locked when the workers left. Only the night operator was on duty at the time the fire was set.

The arsonist shut off the air-conditioning unit in the building which helped suffocate the blaze; however, the fire was started in the midst of long distance circuits—the most vulnerable spot. These circuits are gradually being repaired to permit at least temporary service. Experts are working around the clock at present.

Leland D. Hardy, chief steward of the South Sea Islands and the Lions Club, said several union members were questioned in connection with the spot. These circuits were working with police to find the persons involved.

Company E of the Florida National Guard demonstrated during the alert that it was ready, at a few minutes notice, to help defend this area or to extend invaluable assistance in case of fire, tornado, flood or other disaster. Local residents watched with interest as officers and men of the unit were alerted and quickly

GUARDING their positions were National Guardsmen PFC John Sington (at top) and PFC Luke Jones. Sington was assigned as a member of one road block while Jones guarded a section of the perimeter of defense.

Another group has been won in Company E since the last time we talked together. Sergeant Joe Levitt is now Lt. Levitt. Joe won his commission strictly through the National Guard. He enrolled in what the Guard calls the "Ten series."

The ten series is a correspondence course with 18 sub-courses. Local residents watched with interest as officers and men of the unit were alerted and quickly nine years experience with type and printers' ink is called into play continuously. His philosophy of life, concerning his fellow workers and of his fellow man generally, is an inspiration to the youngsters with whom he is daily associated—they run from 27 to 67.

When asked for his secret of long life and activity, his only reply is "Mind your own affairs." Those of us who work with him know that the Golden Rule is his guiding light.

After several years on the Newton Journal and jobs with other shops in the general area, he joined Union Chapel No. 13 in Boston. In 1904 he began with the Government Printing Office in Washington where he stayed until 1912, when illness of his wife caused him to return to Boston. In 1920, following a normal winter freeze and

In 1932 he persuaded Miss Adeline Griffin of Montgomery to share life's ups and downs, and her ministrations are visible.

It's an accepted fact among those who know him that Mr. Newton will never voluntarily stop; when Ted Man says "that's enough" John Frazier will stop, and not before.

Woman Club Elects Mrs. Thomas Bregger

The Belle Glade Woman's Club elected Mrs. Thomas Bregger president for the ensuing year at a regular meeting held at the clubhouse Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Marvin Unwin presided over the business meeting. Other officers elected were first vice president, Mrs. Bert Roemer; second vice president, Mrs. Tom Carle; recording secretary, Mrs. Fred White; treasurer, Mrs. Ray Kent; parliamentary aid, Mrs. E. D. Humphries; auditor, Mrs. William Rhodes.

Outgoing officers and committee chairmen gave their yearly reports. The membership agreed to write a letter as suggested by the Chamber of Commerce, concerning additional space in the Port Myra Cemetery. The group voted to the transportation of children to the clinic in West Palm Beach and occasionally Miami if the Red Cross would furnish a station wagon for the purpose. Mrs. Frank Dooley volunteered to be chairman of this committee and several volunteered their services.

Mrs. Unwin appointed Mrs. Dora McWhorter as the Club's hospital auxiliary representative for the coming year.

VALUE OF GUARD
ly assumed their assigned duties with the unit.

The excellence of their Guard training was shown in the efficient manner in which they assembled under arms, and were ready to operate their equipment and move out in a remarkably short space of time. Much like volunteer firemen, they were called from their normal civilian pursuits to carry out their part of "Operation Minuteman."

Responding to praise from civilian officials and National Guard commanders for their fine showing, Lt. John Cromatie commanding Company E, said that officers and men of the unit were happy to participate in this training exercise.

"We appreciate the many fine comments on the ability of Company E to mobilize quickly for any possible service to our community, state or country in peace or war," he said.

"The fine cooperation of community officials and area residents in helping us mobilize so is deeply appreciated. We feel that we have again shown our fellow citizens in a convincing manner the important mission of the National Guard."

"Fortunately, this was only a test alert. There might be a time, however, when we would mobilize to protect the community against an armed enemy, or to help civilian agencies cope with fires, floods, storms or other disaster."

"We wish to emphasize these things because they are the principal mission of the National Guard—to help community, state or nation when and where help is needed."

"The National Guard is the oldest military organization in the United States. We are proud of the Guard's great tradition of service in every war since Colonial times, and in a wide variety of national disasters in peace."

"We mention these things because we know there are many young men and veterans in this community who would be proud to be in the National Guard. We would be proud to have them."

Lt. Cromatie said that Company E was accepting enlistments from area men at the armory on Monday nights from eight until ten o'clock. Further information, he added, can be obtained from one of the many Guardsmen in Belle Glade, Pahokee, and Clewiston.

A REPORT TO THE PUBLIC ON THE TELEPHONE STRIKE

Southern Bell deeply appreciates the efforts made by the Governors to settle the telephone strike.

We regret that we were not able to convince those who represented the Union that the company's proposal for increased wages, expanded arbitration, and other contract improvements is fair and liberal. It protects the interests of the public, the employees and the company.

We will continue our efforts to convince union leaders of its benefits and advantages. We hope we will be successful.

In the meantime, telephone service continues good. Over 30,000 telephone men and women are on the job. More are returning every day.

We are handling our normal volume of long distance calls. Local service is 85 per cent dial-operated, and in the other cities and towns where operators handle the calls, the service is generally normal. Over the South, the messages are going through.

This would not be possible without the great encouragement and cooperation given us by telephone users everywhere, and by the skill and spirit of telephone folks on the job. To both groups go our warmest thanks.

THE INDIANS TOLD COLUMBUS IT WAS MAIZE—(lower left) the Egyptians knew it as hegere or kaffir corn, but American scientists have isolated and bred it for animal and human consumption and enjoyment. We table corn—known to us as sweet corn—produced anywhere, equals that grown in the Glades, and South Bay has instituted an annual Sweet Corn Festival for her growers have it from early winter till late spring. Rita Island usually brings in sweet corn among the first. The youngsters at South Bay contributed to the gaiety of the occasion and the enjoyment of themselves and spectators in just plain old eating as shown by the three Miller sisters, Polly, 6, Lois, 4, and Page, 2. The youngster Danny Lasham, in the swing eluded the photographer with his ear of corn and didn't care to have his picture made in such an unglamorous pose. Winner in corn eating contest, Albert Oyster, top, manages to put away eight ears of corn in five minutes, smaller boy, Willie Antonmar-chi, couldn't swallow it as fast as he got it off of the cob, finished off six ears and Margaret Perkins became so interested in how Albert put so much away, lost out in the contest consuming only 5 ears. Others looking on, Billy Walls, left rear, Bertram Davis and Hank Kyle. Eugene Chalcianin lower right, won the corn hucking contest in a field of half dozen corn testants. He hucked seven ears in two minutes, to win the prize.

SWEET CORN FESTIVAL BRINGS LARGE CROWDS

South Bay's Second Annual Sweet Corn Festival held last Saturday turned out to be a highlight of Glades activity with more than 1,600 persons having attended.

Over 7,000 ears of corn were consumed and about 1,800 pounds of beef, according to William Masonic, chairman of the event. He went on to say that about five crates of cabbage was used to make slaw and three hamper of beans were given away. All the food was served free of charge to the public. It was donated by growers and packing houses in the Belle Glade, Pahokee and South Bay area.

Miller Amusement Enterprises of Pompano Beach set up rides for those attending and John Cooper of Coopertown brought his eight passenger airboat for rides on the canal. Masonic said the boat made about 75 or 100 trips.

Masonic said the festival was held to promote the "good will" among communities in the Glades and to get people acquainted with the small cities in the community. "Guests from all over the state registered in the guest book as well as visitors from Pennsylvania, Arkansas and Ohio."

According to Mr. Masonic, the only of the event was defrayed by the advertising fund of the city, with statewide and national publicity resulting.

Hearing On Sugarcane Wages And Prices At Clewiston, May 5th

The U.S. Department of Agriculture announced today that, in accordance with the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, a public hearing will be held on wages rates for the period July 1, 1955 through June 30, 1956, and on prices for the 1955 crop of sugarcane in Florida. The hearing will be held on May 5, 1955 in the Sugarland Park Auditorium, Clewiston, Fla., beginning at 10 a.m.

One of the conditions which producers must meet to qualify for payment is that all information be submitted to the U.S. Department of Agriculture in time to pay all persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane wages rates less than those determined to be fair and reasonable by the Secretary of Agriculture after public hearing and investigation. The act also provides, as a condition for payment, that producers who process sugarcane grown by other producers must pay to the Secretary of Agriculture the price determined to be fair and reasonable by the Secretary of Agriculture.

In order to obtain the best possible information, the Department requests that all interested persons appear at the hearing to present their views and present pertinent data in regard to wages and prices.

Red Jackson found a slick way to get his cows to eat what's good for them. Some of them were passing up the tall green grass—full of minerals and vitamins—and eating the short grass, which is naturally sweeter.

Red solved the problem by spraying a solution of corn syrup over the grass that was going to be eaten. The cows were so used to it that they'd eat it for him and the cows that every one of them had a "sweet tooth."

Next week, according to Red, he's going to have his cows clean

How to arrange for Family Income

and ALSO cover peak expenses

The fixed income of a widow is rarely sufficient to provide for peak expenses—higher education, starting a son in business, weddings, etc. Most plans for future income for our families are laid out on a fixed income basis.

Now Gulf Life guarantees a monthly income until your children are grown and then the peak expenses roll around. At that time the full face value of your life insurance is available to meet those expenses.

This is another example of how Gulf Life helps you provide realistically for your family's needs. Your Gulf Life representative will be glad to tell you about this and many other plans for family security. He'll be able to show you, too, how precious your present insurance is, and how it may be adapted to the changing conditions of your life. Call him today.

Suppose You Are Age 30

If you live your family will be well provided for, but if you don't they will receive $200 per month until 1975 and then $10,000 in cash which should more than cover the peak expenses. They may receive as much as $58,000 in benefits for only $29.10 per month.

74¢ of every dollar behind your Gulf Life policy is invested in the South.

COME ON IN— the price is fine!

UNLESS we miss our guess, a lot of surprised people are going to do some new back-of-an-envelope arithmetic when they see the Buick price shown here.

Because we know that many folks still don't realize how little a Buick really costs—that the dollar difference between this big Buick SPECIAL and the leading smaller cars has virtually disappeared.

Buick Sales Are Soaring As Never Before

But more and more of them are finding it out. And that's a major reason why Buick production and Buick sales are soaring to all-time highs today—and why Buick again is outselling all other cars, regardless of price range, except two of the well-known smaller cars.

Big reason, too, for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of automobiles, giving you a choice in any price class—the rock-bottom priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the supremely spacious SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

But above all, more and more people are discovering that the price you pay for a Buick buys more sheer automobile than the same money buys elsewhere.

More advanced styling, more deep-down comfort, more pure power thrust, more ride steadiness and handling ease and solidity of structure.

More spectacular performance, too, from the modest extra cost of Buick's automatic transmission.

For here you get Variable Birth Dynaflow†—the new wonder drive born of modern aeronautics to give you instant full-power getaway and acceleration when needed—and far better gas mileage when cruising.

Why not come see us this week, for sure? We'll be happy to have you test-pilot a new Buick, just for the sheer thrill of it—and show you quite clearly that if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick.

†Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Buicks.

"Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World" — This year more than five million homemakers, who take part in home demonstration work throughout the nation will observe their 10th annual National Home Demonstration Week.

The Belle Glade Home Demonstration Club will observe National Home Demonstration Week May 1-7, with a window display at Daddy Dick's Juvenile Shop, showing the various articles made by the members of the local club.

Among the topics of programs planned and given for the year are "Good Grooming," "Building a Wardrobe," "Know Your Neighbors," "Buying and Care of Rugs," "Easy Main Dishes to Freeze," "Ironing Made Easy," "Your Business Rating," and others. Miss Sara Horton, Palm Beach County Home Demonstration Agent supervised, and demonstrated various items made.

Local officers of the Belle Glade Home Demonstration Club are: Mrs. Richard Murray, president; Mrs. E. W. Scheffle, vice-president; Mrs. David Motes, secretary and treasurer and Mrs. Walter Hooker, delegate.

Home demonstration work is an educational program of the Cooperative Extension Service of the U. S. States Department of Agriculture, the land-grant colleges and county governments. Through it, homemakers learn to apply the latest scientific methods developed by public and private research. The general aim is to strengthen home and family life by helping women become more efficient homemakers, effective citizens in their communities, states and nations.

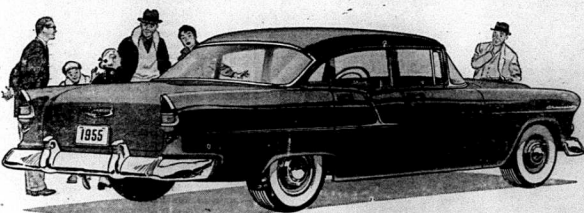

There are about 64,700 clubs in 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico. There are nearly 537,000 local volunteer agents and their assistants with, most of them, a background of people who belong to these clubs. Agents indirectly add about four million homemakers in local, state and national groups and improve home practices.

They offer the newest information on foods, nutrition, clothing, housing, family relationship, and child care. They have been placing this year on broadening their interest in local, national and international affairs.

Some of the purposes of National Home Demonstration Week are to emphasize the value of wise management in home and family living; to acquaint people with the problems of agriculture and their relation to local and national economy; to create homes that will develop good character in the youth; to help consumers de-
